

February 11, 2012

Prior to Valentine's Day, Moscow shall hold a unique exhibition entitled "Soul Trek Art" , dedicated to spiritual art of a special guest - South Florida Writers' Association youngest member, painter, author, and simply wonderful person - Djana Fahryeva.

America discovered Djana at its biggest spiritual, yoga and metaphysical exhibition, Newlife Expo in New York on October 19, 2009, where Djana's paintings first saw the world. After her success in New York she opened her own studio in Miami. Her paintings are a metaphor and graphic representation of love, richness of hues, tones, geometric forms are a result of interactions of the collective unconscious and her Self.

Having traveled over 30 countries in the course of 3 years, including Panama, Brazil, Peru, Argentina, Mexico, Malaysia, Burma, Thailand, China, Mongolia, and Russia, Djana has surprised this world with her book The Soul Trek, a true story of soulmates who met in a Buddhist Monastery in Nepal, romantic love and time-space connection, their adventures in Tibet and their single-soul mission in Lhasa, at the Dalai Lama's Temple.

«My mission - is to bring love and light!» - says Djana. «I believe, that I was born to make this world a better, brighter, and more beautiful place: with every thought, action, yantra and mandala for meditation, Himalayan yogi and Buddha in my own unique style, performed in acrylics and oil on canvas».

The venue is chosen not by chance - ВОС-ДУХ (ВОСходящий ДУХ) - can be translated as "Rising Spirit" - is a Space of Joy, Good Mood, Dance of the Soul and Body, Interesting Trainings and Events, and Possibilities of Self-Realization.

The exhibition shall stay in Moscow until March 21, 2012 and is supported by Inward Path, White Clouds Cultural Center and Open World.

The event shall be accompanied by mellow meditative music; you are welcome to come and enjoy the paintings, meditate in this space filled with light, and even purchase a piece you love. Proceeds shall be sent to Free Tibet.

The event is Open to the Public.

February 11, 2012

18.00-18.30. Cocktails. Presentation and Meditation.

20.00. Ethnic Party "Close Your Eyes with the Music".

Venue: Space of Joy «Vos-Duh» Metro. Savelovskaya, ul. Skladochnaya, house 1, building 1, entrance 2, porch 1, second floor.

For more information about Djana's art and the upcoming exhibition please refer to www.thesoultek.com